SunCorp Plans Meetings with Western Credit Unions

(Westminster, Colorado) January 19, 2012 --- SunCorp has added several more Town Hall meetings with Western credit unions considering alternatives for cooperative financial solutions. The meetings will include discussions with SunCorp's Executive Management Team on its capitalization status and business plans for the future. Credit unions will also learn how SunCorp's payment, liquidity, and investment services can benefit their members.

"We are looking forward to meeting with credit unions in the West and Northwest to discuss the great value and service SunCorp offers" said Thomas R. Graham, President and CEO.

"SunCorp is focused on great service, reliability, and being open and straightforward with our members."

Town Hall meetings are currently scheduled for:

- Idaho – January 24th in Idaho Falls
- Idaho – January 26th in Boise
- Washington – January 31st in Federal Way
- Oregon – February 1st in Milwaukie
- California – February 8th in Redwood City
- California - February 9th in Vacaville
- California - February 15th in Brea
- California - February 16th in Hawthorne

A Town Hall web conference is also planned for February 23rd.

More information about the meetings can be found on SunCorp's website at www.suncorp.coop or by emailing a Business Development Officer at bdo@suncorp.coop.
